

PRESS RELEASE 1st September 2009

FOOTBALLCV ACADEMY SPONSORS CORBY TOWN

The FootballCV Academy are proud to announce they are the official away kit sponsors of semi-professional club Corby Town who play in the Football Conference Blue Square North League.

Corby Town are currently the league leaders and will sport the FootballCV Academy brand name on their shirts for the 2009/10 season.

The Club are expecting contractors to start work on a new ground in October which should be ready for the club to commence playing at the start of next season.

"We are delighted to announce this new arrangement and team up with a club of Corby's stature," commented FootballCV Academy Managing Director Graham Starmer. "This is our second sponsorship deal of this nature and we are pleased that we have found a club with similar values to ourselves to support. We are very excited about the opportunities that exist for both parties and look forward to developing a mutually beneficial relationship."

FootballCV.com is a website database for footballers of all ages, used by managers of all levels. The extensive player database, football trials and assessment days give youngsters the chance to let their talent shine through. The FootballCV Academy is a private full-time football academy for 16-18 year olds whilst also providing education.

Corby Town were formed in 1948.

Chairman Peter Mallinger commented, "I am delighted with the FootballCV Academy sponsorship deal. As a club Corby Town have ambitions to play in the Conference

Premier League and hopefully once achieved can make the step up to the Football League.

"Sponsorship plays such an important role in football today and I am pleased that FootballCV Academy has seen fit to support us with our away kit.

"I believe the deal will be of great benefit to both sides and I hope Corby Town can achieve similar success this year to that of last season when they were promoted to the Conference.
